

2017 CIOP Consulting Challenge

Announcing our 2017 applied experience for 2nd year graduate students in I/O Psychology. The Chicago Industrial/Organizational Psychologists' Consulting Challenge is an exciting opportunity to show off your consulting skills to a Chicagoland Fortune 500 company!

WHO?

I/O Psychology graduate students in MA or PhD programs who have completed their second year of school. We may contact the academic advisor at your graduate program to verify that you qualify to participate.

WHEN?

The challenge begins at noon on Wednesday, May 24 when you will receive team assignment and request for proposal materials. On Friday, May 26th teams will present to a panel of SME judges. The winner is announced at the concluding ceremony.

HOW MUCH?

Registration is $60 per person, including lunch on Friday, May 26th and drinks/appetizers at the concluding ceremony. Registration is only open until all slots are filled.

WHERE?

The host organization's identity is kept secret until the day the Consulting Challenge begins. You will be notified of the general location and area hotel information in April. Last year the host organization was United Airlines.

More information and online registration: <http://www.ciop.net/CIOP-Consulting-Challenge>

Best regards and good luck!
Chicago Industrial Organizational Psychologists